

Angie Littlefield

Writer, curator and editor, Angie Littlefield, spent 33 years in the field of education. As Executive Director of the Durham West Arts Centre 2003-2007 she curated The Thomsons of Durham: Tom Thomson's Family Heritage and started the provincial Reading and Remembrance program. She wrote The Dada Period in Cologne for the Art Gallery of Ontario and will curate the AGO's exhibition on Willy Fick's sister Angelika Hoerle for spring 2009. She walked 720 km from the concentration camp Theresienstadt to Hamburg in the spring of 2008 to feature the history of her grandmother's family in the book Walking with Oma—due for 2010. Angie is the grandniece of the artists Angelika Hoerle and Willy Fick.
